NOTIFICATION

CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the 1st January 1969

S.O. 84.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 25 of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Government being satisfied that it is necessary in the public interest so to do, hereby exempts the goods mentioned below from the whole of the duty of customs leviable thereon under the First Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1934 (32 of 1934), and the additional duty leviable thereon under section 2A of the second mentioned Act, when imported into India by any person of Indian origin who has hitherto been a permanent resident in Uganda, Kenya or Tanzania and who now wishes to repatriate to India, for permanent settlement:—

- (i) one motor car for each family, if that car was in the use of the repatriate either as owner thereof or as a partner or a director of a partnership concern or company, as the case may be, in Uganda, Kenya or Tanzania for not less than one year before the date of his arrival in India,
- (ii) jewellery which is in personal use or kept for such use by the members of the family, upto a value of sixteen thousand rupees for each family,
- (iii) articles or ornaments, or both, made of gold or silver, the total weight of which does not exceed one hundred and seventy five grammes, for each family,

(iv) goods left unsold not exceeding sixteen thousand rupees in value, subject to the conditions (i) that the repatriate has been a dealer in such goods, and in the case of the undermentioned goods he has been a dealer in the same goods from 17th March, 1964 or earlier, and (ii) if such goods are certified as his genuine stock-in-trade by the Indian High Commission concerned:

1. Watches.
2. Synthetic yarn and metallised yarn.
3. Fabrics, sarees and knitted wear, made wholly or mainly of synthetic yarn.
4. Alcoholic liquors.
5. Cigarettes, cigars, manufactured tobacco, cigarette lighters and flints.
6. Fountain pens, ball point pens, and propelling pencils.
7. Perfumes, cosmetics, adjustable safety razors and blades.
8. Playing cards, battery-operated toys.
9. Transistor radios, transistors and diodes; stereos, tape recorders and tapes and cartridges therefor; any combination of these instruments.
10. Electric appliances, namely:—
Shavers, hair dryers, mixers and liquidisers, automatic toasters and irons.
11. Photographic cameras, flash-guns and films therefor.
12. Cloves and cinnamon (cassia).

(v) machinery and industrial apparatus which has been in the use of the repatriate and does not exceed sixteen thousand rupees in value:

Provided that—

- (a) the passport of the repatriate is endorsed by the Indian High Commission concerned to the effect that he is a bona fide repatriate,
- (b) the goods were in the possession of the repatriate before his departure for India, and
- (c) the goods are imported within four months of the arrival of the repatriate or within such extended period as the Collector of Customs may in any particular case allow.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this notification, “family” means a repatriate’s wife or husband residing with and wholly dependent on the repatriate, and includes the children, parents, sisters and brothers of such repatriates, residing with and wholly dependent upon the said repatriate.

2. This notification shall remain in force up to and inclusive of the 31st December, 1969.
